

What should you know?	What should you be able to do?
Where is London situated in the world? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continent – Europe • Latitude – 51N 0W • Oceans and Seas – North Sea • Countries – France to the south, Belgium and Netherlands to the east. • Compass Direction – Northern Hemisphere • Climate – Temperate Maritime 	Use CLOCCC to describe the location of London.
What is the difference between site, situation and settlement. Which factors affect choosing a site for settlement.	Give definitions for the keywords: site, situation and settlement. Explain why the following factors affect siting a settlement: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Water supply - Flat land - Dry land - Access to building materials and fuel - Bridging point - Defence
What sea does the river Thames flow into? What direction does the River Thames flow from source to mouth? What role did the River Thames play in the original siting and growth of London?	Explain the role of the River Thames in the location and growth of London.
What is a choropleth map? What does population density mean?	Define the following geographical keywords: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Population - Migration - Distribution - Diversity - Structure Describe the population density of London. Suggest reasons for the population density of London.
What role did the London Docklands and the British Empire play in the development of London?	Explain the role of the British Empire and trade in the development of London. Explain the role of the London Docklands in the development of London.
What are the four employment sectors / industries? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Primary - Secondary - Tertiary - Quaternary Which employment sector has jobs which pay the most? How have the UK employment sectors changes since 1791?	Give an example of a job from the primary industry. Give an example of a job from the secondary industry. Give an example of a job from the tertiary industry. Give an example of a job from the quaternary industry. Describe the changes in the UK employment sector since 1791. Suggest reasons for the change.
Why is London wealthy? What are some of the social, economic and environmental problems facing London?	Describe some of the problems faced by London e.g. traffic congestion, pollution, growing elderly population, childcare, housing.
What does sustainable mean? How are London's green spaces distributed? What are the benefits of making London a National Park City?	Define the term sustainable. Describe the distribution of London's green spaces.

Describe the location of London using CLOCCC.

Continent –

Latitude –

Oceans and Seas –

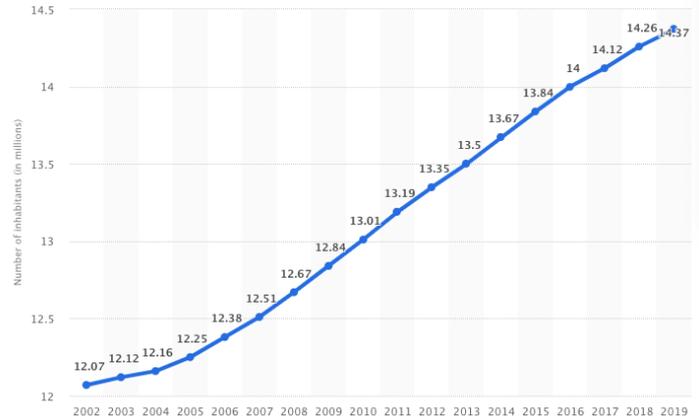

Countries –

Compass Direction –

Climate –

Name three boroughs within London.

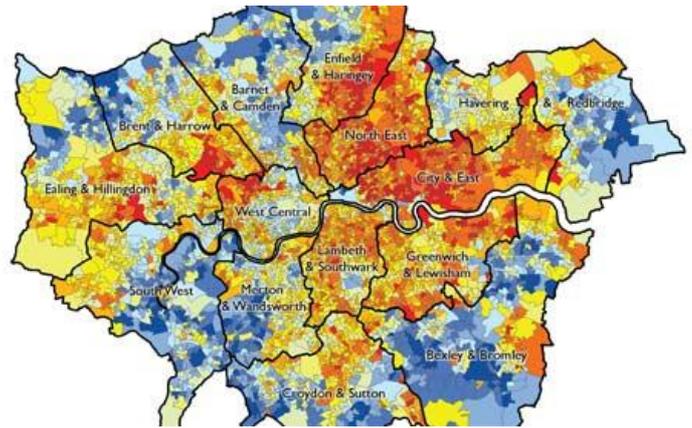

Describe the trend shown in the population graph of London. How has the population of London changed over time?

Write down five facts about a chosen London borough. Think about population, wealth, green space etc.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Describe the distribution of deprivation from the Multiple Deprivation Index map of London below. Remember TEAS!

State two factors that influenced the Romans when siting the settlement Londinium.

- 1.
- 2.

Why would flat land be useful to early settlers?

Why would it be good to build a settlement near to a woodland or forest?

What is a bridging point and why is it a useful siting factor?

State which industry the following jobs belong to:

Ship building _____

Farming _____

iPhone developing _____

Dentistry _____

Fishing _____

Mining _____

Food processing _____

Disease researching _____

Hairdressing _____

